

Isaac Adams, the veteran Malheur County freighter, was in Vale Tuesday loading one six horse and two four horse freighting outfits for Burns. Perched on the pinnacle of one on the loaded wagons was a fine new red sleigh billed to one of the hardware merchants there. Rumors came to us that it is sold to a middle aged, single young man and the first ride when the snow comes is promised to one of Burns most popular young ladies, whose morning's greeting is invariably "hello, number, please." Mr. Adams will probably make this his last trip as a freighter, and has followed this business long enough to be entitled to a well deserved rest.—Vale Oriano.

Word has been received from Portland which strongly confirms the statement that the townsite of Laidlaw has been purchased by the Mount Hood Railroad, says the Chronicle. The same paper also reports that the land lying on the east side of the river adjoining the present townsite is to be platted and placed on the market under a progressive and extended advertising campaign. Uncle Frank Nichols will also plat a portion of his land on the north of the town and place it on the market.

Do you know that Pinesolve Carbolyzed acts like a poultice in drawing out inflammation and poison? It is antiseptic. For cuts, burns, eczema, cracked hands it is immediate relief. Sold by The Welcome Pharmacy, Burns, Ore. Fred Haines, Harney, Ore.
